

County Grant Program Past Examples of Projects

Past projects that have received funding have included:

- Ag in the Classroom:
 - o Raised garden boxes and gardening books
 - o Outdoor learning space and garden expansion
 - o Hoop-enhanced raised garden beds
 - o Building of a chicken coop
 - o Creation of a children's garden and new outdoor classroom
 - o Education kits containing ag lesson plans and teaching materials
 - o Assistance with Ag Educator Workshops
- Consumer Awareness and Education:
 - o Purchasing and placing approved ag books in local library systems
 - o Agriculture Awareness Days
 - o Building of an Ag Literacy Barn Bookshelf and purchase of approved ag books for use within the community
- Leadership Development:
 - o Sending a county representative to the Young Farmer Leadership Conference
 - o Sending FFA members to the National FFA Convention

Other Examples of Projects

Projects may include:

- Ag in the Classroom:
 - o Incubator for a classroom
 - o Honeybee observatory for a classroom
 - o Farm Day at a school
 - o Greenhouse programs
 - o Agricultural learning projects for school children
 - o Technology programs within a school/classroom
 - o Ag Book library
 - o Expansion of any AITC project already in place
- Consumer Awareness and Education:
 - o Community garden
 - o Community farmers market
 - o Booth at a local fair or other community event
 - o Bring an expert speaker in to a special event
 - o Farm City Week events
- Leadership Development:
 - o Assist with sending individuals to conferences or camps
 - o 4-H or FFA Camp Scholarship
 - o GFB Young Farmer events (state or national)

Projects that are NOT ALLOWED:

- Funding for mileage
- Field trips
- Landscaping projects not designed to educate about growing food
- Wages or benefits to individuals
- One-time consumables
- Food
- Drinks
- Office supplies
- Farm Safety supplies

This is not a comprehensive list! Simply use this list as a guide for your internal thought process. All projects are subject to approval by the GFB Foundation.